A Secret Mission and How it Failed to Bring Frank Cannon Into Line With the New Movement.

The A. P. U. slate is made up. It will be crowded down the throats of the K crowd tonight. The Grand theater will be the political apothecary shop in which it will be done. The dose will taste bitter to some, but it has got to be swallowed for Tom and his cohorts have said so. And when Tom wants his way he will have it if he has to go to the famous island of Alaska to get it. the famous island of Alaska to get it.
There will be a crowd present, too, if hiring is necessary to get it there. It is expected that the gathering will be quite large, it will have to be so in order that it may be heralded abroad to the world tomorrow that countless to the world tomorrow that countless thousands were turned away and that the encoming movement will make a tidal wave look small when compared with it. Superfatives are to be the order of the night. Patriotism is to be cornered and nailed to the floor. The stars and Stripes are to forever be the special of one Dinning who has been roperty of one Dinning who has been property of one Dinning who has been busy during the Lay in poining minia-ture American flags on every one who promised to go to the Grand tonight and call him IT or the A. escertain the personnel of the ticket that has been prepared for tonight's "convention," 'mass meeting' or 'rati-fication' but that is one of its inner seriets a secret that will be disclosed when Tom says so. It is claimed that asre will be some surprises sprung. but there will be one that will not be rung. And thereby hangs It is a well known fact that Former Sepator Frank J. Cannon has been in the east for some time. It is also known that his return has been anticipated for a week or more. It was likerise heliayed by some of the A. P. U. balers that his services could be enlisted in behalf of the "new movement." Accordingly that astute civil service politician, U. S. Marshal Heywood and Willard Snyder, another shining light among the reformers, took train, crossed the borders and went over into Wyoming and rode home with Mr. Cannon on Wednesday last. Of ccurse they endeavored to convince him that his support was necessary. That it would be a great thing to cure the championship of himself and paper. But great was their disap-pontment when Mr. Cannon said in

Boys, had it been a non-Church movement I might have considered the propriety of helping you. But it is anti-Church: so I can't and won't. Therefore you can't count on me. You most understand that there is a big difference between an anti-Church and non-Church movement. So please

LOGAN REPUBLICANS.

Addressed Last Night by Messers. Wells, Cutler and Frick.

Logan, Sept. 30 .- There was a large ttendance at the Republican rally in Thatcher Opera House last night; during the afternoon the Hyde Park band paraded the streets and advertised the meeting and drew out a large crowd. The platform was profusely decorated with flowers, flags and ounting and presented a very attractive appearance. The local Republican leaders occupied the platform, among whom was Hon-James Howell and the county candidates. Gov. Wells was the first speak-er and delivered a very able address. J. Cutier came next delivering a short address which was listened to with Frick occupied the greater part of the time expounding Republican principles in a manner that showed he understood what he was talking about and which seemed to please his audience as well. The trio are at Smithfield this after-noon and at Hyrum tonight.

RUSSIA BEGINS A LIBERAL REGIME.

It is Inaugurated With Accession Of Prince Sviatopolk-Missky to Office of Minister of Interior.

PAPERS BREATHE TONE OF RELIEF

His Words Augur Tranquility, Progress and Mutual Confidence.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 30, (1 p. m.)-The war in the far east has been momentarily thrown in the shade by the universal acclaim with which the Russian press today greets the accession of Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky to the office of minister of the interior as marking the inauguration of a liberal regime. All the papers print the minister's speech at the reception yesterday of the officials of the ministry, and by the side of it, by special authorization of the minister of the interior, the interview of the Associated Press with the minister at Vilna, Sept. 23. Many of the papers also print the emperor's manifestation of 1903. The editorials all breathe a tone of relief at the passage of the Von Plehve regime and intense satisfaction at the dawning of brighter

The interview of the Associated Press with the ministers of the interior is accepted as an amplification of the minister's words to his associates. The Russ entitles its editorial "A System of Confidence," and says:

"A year and a half have elapsed since the manifesto was issued but the former minister was far from encouraging the co-operation of the people con-cerned. He deliberately excluded them and fostered an atmosphere of mutual suspicion. The new minister realizes that the only way to obtain actual results is to give lasting effect to the lib-eral pledges contained in the manifesto, take the people into his confidence and ask for the hearty co-operation of all classes. There is no necessity for pointing out that this method of applying the manifesto is a new departure. In the minister's interview with the Associated Press, his words were addressed primarily to the Zemstvos. They must make the first response. He says: I believe in the Zemstvos and am convinced that they can render the greatest service."

"It is undoubtedly the mission of the government in the truest sense to cordially strive for their success and not to see in Zemstvos an attempt to thwart the government aims and am-bitions. The noble, generous words of the minister should call forth worthy response from the Zemstvos, which are about to convene. They will not fall to co-operate by pointing out the immediate requirements of the country. Through the united action of the government the Zemstvos and the people, by stimulating the moral forces, the nation should succeed in establishing the organization of the country upon a solid basis. We great the coming era of union as the dawn of a new and rejuvenated Russia."

'The Novosti, the Jewish organ, dwelling on the statement of the minister to the Associated Press at Vilna on the subjects of the Jews says:

"Despite the prince's modest denial that he has elaborated his program, his assurance that there will be larger opportunities for life and work' for Jews. none the less contains a whole political program which all will hail with delight and help to realize."

The Novoe Vremya says:
"The minister's words advocating mutual confidence between the government and people will satisfy the cravings which all the people in Russia have long felt, but have only been able to mutely express

The Bourse Gazette heads its editorial "A Policy of Sincerity" and says:

"The confidence thus expressed towards the Russian nation and the Russian press will not be betrayed.

Continuing, the Bourse Gazette welcomes the minister's words in the Associated Press interview as confirming the reports that the prince entertains the most enlightened and liberal views.
The Gazette says Prince Mirsky's words yesterday and his statements to the Associated Press at Vilna augur tranquility, progress at vilha augur-tranquility, progress mutual confidence and unremitting labor, adding: "These are golden words which will go down to history: 'The welfare of the people.' Such is Russia's motto-now."

BELLS TOLL FOR DEPARTED DEAD.

Massachussetts and the Nation Lose a Great Man in Death Of Senater Hoar.

BELOVED BY FELLOW TOWNSMEN

Funeral Will be Held Monday at Worcester-Rev. E. E. Hale, Chaplain Of the Senate, Will Officiate,

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 30 .- The tolling of the bells of the church towers and fire stations of Worcester communicated to his fellow citizens the intelligence of the passing of United States Senator George Frishie Hoar, whose death occurred at 1:35 a. m. today. The people of Worcester, to whom

Senator Hoar was endeared in a measure beyond that ever given to any other his sickness for six weeks, and hundreds of calls on the telephone company made daily at the newspaper offices by persons who desired to hear the latest news from the bedside. The state of profound stupor which was an indication of the approach of death embraced the senator for 40 hours. Yesterday he became as weak as he could be and live, with the pulse and respiration so faint that they could be detected only by the physician. Dr. Warren R. Gilman, the medical attendant, said that so slight a thing as pulling the clothing on the bed would have been sufficient to take away enough strength to cause death. The patient had expressed a wish early in his illness that he might die peacefully and without a struggle. Such a death came

Besides Dr. Gilman, the senator's two children, Rockwood Hoar and Miss Mary Hoar, were at the beside until the end. E. W. Doherty, the messenger of the committee on judiciary of the sen-ate, of which Mr. Hoar was chairman, came to Worcester yesterday to be with the senator in his last hours.

Early in the week Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale, an intimate friend, came from Boston, but was not admitted to the sick chamber nor was Senator Henry Cabot Lodge admitted when called on Wednesday. The physician was afraid lest the least commotion would have a fatal effect.

Senator Hoar was inseparably identi-fied with the interests of Worcester. He was the principal in establishing a free public library and later a reading room. He was foremost in placing the Worcester polytechnic institute on a solid force. foundation and for many years was one of its trustees. He was a warm friend of Clark university, being first its vice president, and at the death of Jonas G. Clark, its head, Mr. Hoar became president of the board of trustees, a position he held until his death. For many years he until his death. For many years he was trustee of Lelcester academy. CONGRESS OF LAWYERS ENDS.

To What Extent Should Judicial Action by Courts of a Foreign Nation be Recognized?

DISCUSSED BY W. R. KENNEDY

Complete Unification of Laws Impossible as Adoption of a Common Language.

St. Louis, Sept. 30.-The program arranged for the Universal Congress of Lawyers and Jurists, which has been in session at Festival hall on the world's fair grounds since Wednesday, was completed today. The interest awakened by the discussions and theories of law advanced by the noted jurists of this and foreign countries was enhanced rather man, anxiously fellowed the course of than lessened by the fact that it was the closing session. The first subject for consideration was, "To What Extent Should Judicial Action by Courts of a Foreign Nation be Recognized?" It was presented by the Hon. Str William R. Kennedy, justice of the high court of England, and was considered with special reference to the status of individuals as affected by divorce or other decrees and the right to represent the person or property of another. Sir William R. Kennedy declared, in his opening remarks, that the subject upon which he had been invited to speak was one of very real importance to the family of civilized nations. He said the complete unification of law is beyond the range of practica possibility as the universal adoption of a common language. "There are not wanting, however." he said, "signs of augury that in respect, at any rate of laws and state regulations which affect mercantile and maritime inter-ests, and an advance toward practical unification in particular directions, such as the law relating to collisions at sea nd marine insurance, may be ere long, and thus some visible fruit reward the good work of the Internaional Law association and its fellow abovers in the same field."

Continuing, Sir Kennedy said:
"Having regard to the degree which equality of civilization, identity of moral standard, and community o deas as to legality, exist throughou vestern Christendom, each member the family of states should generally presume that right has been done li the judicial proceedings of a siste state. Let us be ready to admit that h regard to the application of legal principles there may be not infrequently alike in point of abstract reasonly and in point of practical advantage something to justify a practise which is not our practise. Provided, always that the litigant parties have been judged by a foreign tribunal of com petent international jurisdiction, the fact that a legal principle has there been applied to which we should have preferred another (as. e. g., the lex loci contractus, and not the lex loci solutions and the lex loci solutions are such as the lex loci solutions tionis), ought generally, and in regard to what may be called ordinary matters of litigation, to be regarded as o slight concert in comparison with the establishment, either by tacit recognition or by international pact, of the principle that a judgment anywhere is a judgment everywhere."

LAS ANIMAS RIVER DOES DAMAGE TO TRINIDAD.

Denver, Sept. 30.-Extensive damage s reported to have been done at Trin idad, Colo., last night by a flood in the Las Animas river. All wires in the vicinity were down this morning and communication with the city entirely cut off. All bridges in and about the city are said to have been washed away and no trains can get in or out on the Santa Fe, D. & R. G. and Colorado & Southern railroads. The latest re-port received was that the Santa Fe depot had been washed away and the Harvey hotel was threatened with destruction. So far as known there have been no lives lost.

Trinidad is the county seat of Las Animas county and the center of an extensive coal mining region. Its pop-ulation numbers about 5,000. At the Colorado & Southern train dispatcher's office in this city it said that the last news received from Trinidad was that the city reservoir had gone out early this morning. It could not be learned whether any loss of life resulted, or what damage was

No Decision in La Follette Case.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—The supreme court today was again the source of keen disappointment to the politicians of the state in that it did not hand down the decision in the Lafollette case. Everything now depends upon the date to which an adjournment is taken at the conclusion of today's work. There is a belief in some quarters that the court will take the usual course of holding a session on Saturday and that it will render a decision at that time.

It is unnecessary for us to shade or soften the picture of the horrors being enact-ed in the far east. Let us only hope our diplomatic battle will be won ulti-mately as sure the other. Bismarck, without ultimate compensation. Wha plish we ought to be able to do at the conclusion of the war in the orient."

The Novosti, in a significant editorial article this morning, reviews the military progress in the orient, and says the formation of a second Manchurian army is Russia's pledge to the world that Japan shall be confined to her original frontier. The editorial calls upon the other powers to take cognizance of the "yellow peril," and agree that China must not be allowed to become a military power, but must not fall under the domination of Japan. WHY OYAMA DELAYS.

Mukden, Sept. 30.—The delay in the resumption of the aggressive by Field Marshal Oyama, according to the best information, is due to the neces-sity of making good the losses which he sustained at Liao Yang, and to the bringing up of stores and munitions. But the preparations for an active forward movement of the Japanese now seem to have been completed, and a serious collision is regarded as imml-

Gen. Kuropatkin today reviewed several detachments of trops which have just arrived here, and conferred the St. George's cross upon 18 officers who distinguished themselves at the battle of Liao Yang.

KUROPATKIN'S CLAIMS URGED.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 30.—The war expert of the Novoe Vremya says he beleves a battle at Mukden is possibly mys and even weeks distant. He re-alls that two months elapsed between Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. The Novoe Vremya continues to urge that Gen. Kuropatkin be appointed commander-inchief, intimating again that he has been embarrassed heretofore by Viceroy Alexieft.
